

BAXI GROUP PENSION SCHEME (BGPS) PRIVACY NOTICE

This notice explains how Baxi Group and Newmond Pension Trustees Limited, the trustee of the BGPS, uses and protects the personal information that it holds about members and other beneficiaries of the BGPS. Contact details for the Trustee are set out at the end of this notice.

The Trustee is a "controller" for the purposes of the data protection laws. The current data protection laws are set out in the UK General Data Protection Regulation (sometimes also known as the GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018. We refer to these as the "Data Protection Laws" in this privacy notice.

You should share this notice with your family and dependants where you have provided us with personal information about them.

WHAT IS PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Personal information broadly means information that identifies (or which could, with other information that we hold or are likely to hold, identify) a living individual.

This includes any information provided to us by or on behalf of you, the BGPS employers or HM Revenue & Customs in relation to your actual or potential membership of the BGPS.

WHAT TYPES OF PERSONAL INFORMATION MIGHT WE HOLD ABOUT YOU?

We collect and process the information about you that you provide by filling in forms and by corresponding with us and our service providers by telephone, email or otherwise. We also collect and process information about you that is provided to us by the BGPS employers or by HM Revenue & Customs.

We may hold and process any or all of the following personal information about you:

- personal details such as your name, gender, age, date of birth, contact details (e.g. your address and postcode, email, telephone and mobile numbers), and identifiers such as your National Insurance number, pension or member reference number and employee number (where applicable);
- details of your family, lifestyle and social circumstances. This could include details about your current marriage or civil partnership, any previous relationships and details of your family and dependants;
- employment details such as your earnings, length of service, employment and career history, recruitment and termination details, absence record, job title and job responsibilities;
- other financial details such as about any other income, other pension arrangements, bank account details (e.g. to process pension payments) and your tax code;

- information about your physical or mental health (where there is a legal basis for the processing of such data under the Data Protection Laws - see below); and
- information about criminal convictions if these relate to money owed to the employer in circumstances where the employer is entitled to be reimbursed from your benefits.

WHY DO WE HOLD THIS INFORMATION?

We hold this information because we need it to administer the BGPS. Without your personal information, we cannot provide you and your dependants with the correct benefits, at the right time. For example, we may need this information to verify your membership of the BGPS, to calculate your pension or assess whether you are entitled to a specific benefit, or to work out how the tax rules apply to you.

We may use unique identifier information, such as your National Insurance number, passport number, pension or member reference number and employee number (where applicable) for the purposes of sending communications to you and verifying your identity.

In some instances, we may need to hold and process information relating to your physical or mental health, for example if you are applying for a pension on grounds of ill-health. We will ask for your explicit consent to this, unless there is an alternative legal basis for processing this information under the Data Protection Laws. Once you have given your consent, you can withdraw it at any time by writing to us using the contact details below.

USING YOUR INFORMATION IN ACCORDANCE WITH DATA PROTECTION LAWS

The Data Protection Laws require us to meet certain conditions before we are allowed to use your personal information in the way described in this privacy notice.

We rely on a condition that allows us to use your personal information to comply with our legal obligations in relation to the BGPS. We also rely on a condition known as 'legitimate interests' in order to use this information in the way described in this privacy notice. We have legitimate interests in collecting and processing your personal information, as we need this to administer the BGPS and to provide benefits for you and your dependants.

We will keep the amount of personal information collected and the extent of any processing to the minimum.

We will only process 'sensitive' or 'special categories' of personal information under the Data Protection Laws (e.g. information about your health) where you have explicitly consented to this or where there is an alternative legal basis for processing this information under the Data Protection Laws. This may mean that you will be asked to sign consent forms in the future. If you don't consent to our processing this information when asked to do so, it may mean that we are unable to pay benefits to you or your dependants. Once you have given your consent, you can withdraw it at any time by writing to us using the contact details below.

We will only process information about criminal convictions if these relate to money owed to the employer in circumstances where the employer is entitled to be reimbursed from your benefits and either you consent to this or the processing is necessary for the exercise of a legal claim by the employer.

WHAT DO WE DO WITH THE INFORMATION?

We may use your personal information for a number of purposes relating to the administration of the BGPS, including the following:

- to calculate and pay benefits. This includes providing you with details of your benefits and options under the BGPS and dealing with any queries that you have about these;
- to carry out our obligations arising from any agreement that we have with, or concerning, you and to provide you with the information, benefits and services that you request from us;
- to notify you about services provided to members of the BGPS and any changes to those services or to enable you to access those services;
- for statistical, financial modelling, funding, accounting and reference purposes;
- for internal record keeping;
- for risk management purposes, including the insurance or management of longevity risks and related demographic risks or the insurance of the BGPS benefits;
- complying with our legal obligations, any relevant industry or professional rules and regulations or any applicable voluntary codes;
- complying with demands or requests made by any relevant regulators, government departments and law enforcement or tax authorities or in connection with any disputes or litigation; and
- in connection with any sale, merger, acquisition, disposal, reorganisation or similar change of the Baxi Group's business.

HOW LONG DO WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION FOR?

We will hold your personal information on our systems for as long as is necessary for the BGPS to provide benefits to you or your dependants.

So, for example, if your pension is paid from the BGPS when you retire, we will hold your information for the rest of your life, until your pension ceases on your death. If a pension is payable to any of your dependants after your death, we will continue to hold your information until their pensions cease. We will then continue to hold your information for a further indefinite period after all benefits payable to you and your dependants have ceased, in case there are any further queries about your membership of the BGPS.

If you cease to be a member of the BGPS (e.g. because you transfer your benefits to another pension arrangement or take them all as a one-off cash lump sum), we will hold your information for as long as you are a member and then for an indefinite period after you cease to be a member, in case any further queries arise about your membership of the BGPS.
